

Advance Computer Literacy Program for Alangilan Senior High School

Description

The Alangilan Senior High School would like to conduct an Advance Computer Literacy Training for their faculty members. The aim of the training is to enhance employee's knowledge and understanding of the different topics such as MS Excel, Data Privacy Act, Cybersecurity, Photoshop and Antiplagiarism Software. These can improve productivity and enhance professional competencies of their faculty members. The Alangilan Senior High School is requesting from Batangas State University for assistance of resource persons and pool of expertise in the conduct of the said training under the office of community and extension services.

Beneficiary

Alangilan Senior High School

Duration

3 sessions of seminar was done

October 25,2019

November 15, 2019

November 29, 2019

Pictures

